

ARTIST CALL FOR ENTRY

Loveland Art in Public Places seeks artist submissions for artwork to be placed in City buildings. From this Call for Entry the Visual Arts Commission intends to make direct purchases of multiple artworks. Installation sites may include buildings such as the Chilson Recreation & Senior Center, the Library, the Development Center and City Hall.

How to apply

This project is open to all Loveland artists of two-dimensional media and business owners.

- * Artists must complete the requirements listed in the Artist Submission Form and submit materials by Tuesday, September 8, 2020 at 5pm.
- * Submitted artwork must be of professional quality and must be an original design created by the artist.
- * Only completed artwork will be considered for purchase. Please do not submit a conceptual drawing or proposal.
- * Selected artwork must be considered “ready to hang” with a standard wire system, framed (if appropriate), protective glass (when appropriate), professionally fabricated, safe and durable enough for public display.
- * Each artist is allowed a maximum of 5 entries.
- * Submit your application one of two ways:
 - 1) Materials may be submitted in hard copy to the Loveland Museum, 503 N. Lincoln Avenue, or
 - 2) Email the materials to: Suzanne.Janssen@cityofloveland.org. Be sure to use the subject line of: ARTWORK SUBMISSION to ensure your application is considered for this competition.
