Best Local Italian Food 2012

Asiago's Restaurant and Wine Bar: Molto bene.

Readers' Picks

When BW readers are craving Italian staples like insalata caprese classed up with a drizzle of basil oil or house-made pasta in a fresh tomato sauce spiked with a sprinkle of red chiles, they head to Asiago's for a stateside taste of Italy. But when they seek more traditional American steak-and-potatoes fare or even Thai fusion dishes like fettuccine in a red-curry coconut cream sauce, Asiago's also has them covered. 1002 Main St., Boise, 208-336-5552, asiagos.com
