

Brady Risk Program Managers announces New Executive Additions

Fast Growing Insurance Service Provider Strengthens Resources for Supporting Enterprises

Huntington, NY – Brady Risk Program Managers (www.bradyrisk.com) and their partner companies, Tritan Risk Management Group (www.tririsk.com) and Healthcare Risk Management Group (www.hcrmg.com) have announced today that Michael McKeown has joined the firm as Senior Vice President, Brokerage and Program Management Services to further develop their growing portfolio of regional and national programs. Mike comes with a wealth of experience within the Industry, having spent the last three years at York Risk Services (formally the Risk Management Planning Group) where Mike was leading the brokerage division in the NY Region.

Also joining Mike is Tanaquea Rosario, the new Director of Program Development and Safety Group Executive for Safety Groups written in the New York State Insurance Fund, and Michelle Kuffo, joins as a Senior Account Executive for large casualty accounts. Both Tanaquea and Michelle also join the company from York Risk Services.

Sean M. Brady, President of Brady Risk Management, Inc., stated that “Any time you can gather that amount of experience and knowledge who collectively steered and serviced some of the largest Workers Compensation Accounts in New York State you have to invest in them. Our goal is to provide Mike and his team with the most advance technology and proprietary systems that, when combined with their years of experience and knowledge, you will drive meaningful financial results for our clients.” John Harris, Managing Director, added “We view these appointments as a sign of our commitment to being a leading company in our industry. Our new innovations and the increasing demand from our customers led us to look for exceptional additions to our team who will fit in with our ethos of innovation and exceptional service, I’m confident that Mike and his team will play a key role in providing and implementing high quality solutions for our all of our clients.”
