Adults also benefit both personally and professionally from learning a second language with Crossing Borders. In fact, many companies are encouraging if not requiring employees to be bilingual. Crossing Borders provides business etiquette training, interpretation, and translations services. Fortune 500 companies and small businesses alike use Crossing Borders Group for their private executive programs. These intensive programs can be customized to fit any industry or field, and cover business language skills, vocabulary lessons, cultural customs, and professional etiquette. Classes may be conducted on or offsite, with flexible scheduling. When necessary, Crossing Borders will even customize a curriculum and instructional materials to address industry-specific language training. Adult and older child courses include:

- ENGLISH CLASSES FOR ADULTS AND FAMILIES
- BUSINESS ENGLISH WORKSHOPS
- SPANISH CLASSES FOR ADULTS
- SPANISH, FRENCH AND ENGLISH TUTORING FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
- SPANISH AND MANDARIN TEEN SUMMER CAMP
- CORPORATE LANGUAGE TRAINING

Where most language companies specialize on either adult or child services, Crossing Borders uniquely addresses both, helping students of all ages converse in their target language quickly. The educated and trained staff love what they do and know how to do it well; infusing the lessons with love and care.

It's clear that there are many benefits to learning a second language. The question isn't if you should pursue it, but where. Advantages aside, it is the attitude and commitment of every employee of Crossing Borders that makes it the place to go for learning a second language. You can't help but feel the staff's love of teaching people about culture nor their dedication to making it easy and fun. It's what makes all the difference. Plus, results are guaranteed!
