

Chiropractor Wanted

Our busy, award-winning Divine Spine clinics need Full-Time Chiropractors to meet our ongoing client demand. We currently operate 15 clinics across North America and have been successfully established for over 12 years. Boasting 1000+ Five-Star online reviews, Divine Spine is highly recognized and supported by local physicians and other healthcare professionals. We have respected and resilient relationships with Physicians Lawyers, and WorkSafe. All locations passed WorkSafe COVID-19 inspections. We offer:

- Excellent remuneration ($80,000- $250,000)
- Partnership opportunities
- Vacation and sick day coverage
- Structured mentorship for New Doctors
- Steady client base- we are currently bursting with new patient demand
- State-of-the-art equipment in high-end clinics
- Professional marketing support and development so you can focus on your clients
- Advanced operational support and systems including full-time receptionist/administrative support and a strong online presence through website and social media
- A fun and supportive work environment
- Team of 20+ registered practitioners to network with from other Divine Spine locations

The ideal candidate is energetic and eager to learn, outgoing and motivated by opportunity. This person is driven to succeed, adaptable and fun to work with in a fast-paced environment. The ideal candidate will also reflect organization and communication skills representative of a professional, industry-leading organization.

If you wish to accelerate your career in a warm, professional clinic that encourages success for everyone involved, please apply with your resume/ CV to sarah@divinespine.com