"We were shocked and embarrassed when we found out that contractors were America's #1 most complained about industry."

—Bill Stillwell General Manager, Hippo Roofing

So, You're Thinking About A Remodeling Project For Your Home?

Congratulations! When done properly, a remodeling project can make your home more enjoyable and prove to be a valuable investment. Unfortunately, we've all heard horror stories about home remodeling projects gone bad. Problems with longer-than-expected installation, final bills that come in higher than the quote, and shoddy workmanship, sadly, are commonplace. We were shocked and embarrassed to find out that, according to Better Business Bureau statistics, home improvement contractors are in the top 1% most complained about industries—right up there with auto repair and airlines.

We've always done a good job and treated our customers right—and we've been able to build a nice business because of it. However, over the years I've noticed that some consumers will choose less-than-reputable companies to do jobs for them... usually because they are quoted less money. Don't get me wrong: I'm all for good, honest competition, but it pains me to see good folks risk their hard-earned money with contractors who don't have their best interests at heart. You deserve a great value for your money—which includes an honest contractor who carries workers compensation, uses high quality products as well as stands behind their work in both word and deed.

Industry Standards Weren't Tough Enough

We wanted to find a way to educate consumers about how to choose a good, honest home improvement contractor. The industry standards simply aren't tough enough—just about anybody with a hammer and a pickup truck can be a contractor. That's why we've pioneered a set of standards called the Code of Ethics& Competency for Remodeling Contractors. The Code calls for contractors to uphold a high set of standards that will allow you to judge BEFOREHAND whether or not a contractor is likely to do the job right. This guide specifies those standards.

Before you hire any company to work in or around your home, make sure you consult this guide and INSIST that the company comply with EVERY SINGLE STANDARD in this book. If you do, chances are excellent you'll get exactly what you want out of your project.

Sincerely,

Bill Stillwell

General Manager, Hippo Roofing

Bill Stittent

STABILITY

You need to make sure that any contractor you do business with has proven themselves in the past, and will be there if you need them in the future. Don't just ASK the contractor if they are stable; look for tangible proof of longevity and financial stability by asking for the items listed on the next few pages.

Why It's Important: Believe it or not, many contractors use a pickup truck for an office and showroom. Make sure that any contractor you're dealing with is substantial enough to have a real office with all the normal business functions—accounting, production, sales, etc. If a contractor does not have an office, that should tell you something. Don't fall for the "we just use our trucks as offices!" line.

Bank Letter

Why It's Important: Good standing with a bank is crucial for any business, but gaining the confidence and security of its financial managers allows a company not only to sustain itself and endure even in rough economic times, but to innovate and grow to meet and service customer demands.

Supplier Letter

I Brant fit sales your (Benzon year) Taxoniathiotomic.com

Why It's important: Like in any business, having the correct relationships with suppliers is of extreme importance. Hippo not only has relationships with local supply houses, but also has exclusive distribution aggreements with companies like Interlock Roofing Systems & Union Corrugating Company.

Business Licenses

Why It's Important: Make sure they have been operating under the same name for a minimum of 5 years. Many contractors open and close their doors multiple times to avoid past customer complaints. (Naturally, some businesses will be legitimately new—if so, get a 10 year work history of the owner and ASK questions!)

Insurance

Why It's Important: You need to know if your contractor carries general liability and worker's compensation insurance for both commercial and residential projects. A sizable contractor will carry no less than $500,000... and usually around $1,000,000 of general liability coverage. If your contractor's insurance policy can't cover potential damages, then the contractor would be personally liable. If he cannot cover the damages himself, you will have no legal recourse and will end up paying for any possible damages or injuries yourself. Many contractors are not financially stable...and don't carry proper insurance coverage to protect you against losses. Additionally, contractors who fail to provide workers compensation benefits risk severe governmental penalties and potentially company-ending lawsuits should an employee become injured.

Hippo Roofing carries $1,000,000 of general liability coverage and here's the certificate to prove it! Do NOT deal with a contractor without sizable coverage, or you could foot the bill for the mistake. Also, do not deal with a contractor that uses worker's compensation exemptions. If you find exemptions rather than coverage by a work comp carrier, you take great risk in using this type of contractor.

You can check any Florida contractor by searching the Florida worker's compensation proof of coverage database:

REPUTATION

You can tell a great deal about a contractor based on what others are saying about them—particularly their customers. The old advice of "ask for 3 references" is just too easy to fake. You'll need to get a little tougher with your contractor to protect yourself. Insist that any contractor you're considering can produce the things listed on the next few pages to PROVE that their reputation is rock solid.

BBB Accreditation

Why It's Important: You need to go further than just checking a contractor's standing with the BBB. Remember, many contractors shut down and open under new names year after year. So check to see how long they've been a member, and check to be sure the contractor is accredited by the BBB. This means that if complaints arise, the contractor agrees that the BBB's judgment is binding and must perform accordingly. Without this agreement, you may have no recourse. Hippo Roofing is a BBB Accredited Business with an A+ rating at the time of this printing.

www.bbb.org/central-florida/

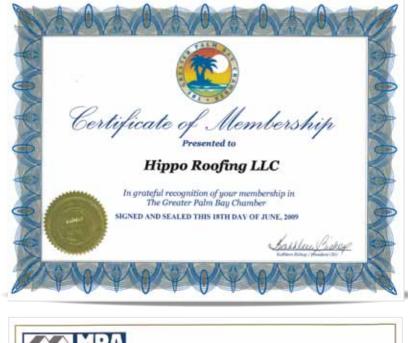

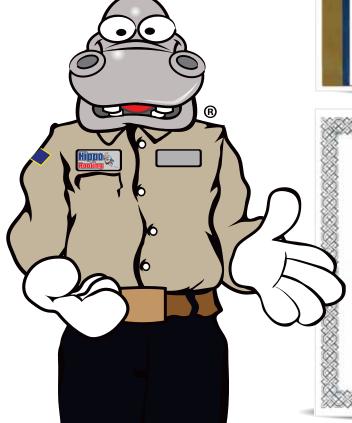

Memberships

Why It's Important: Any reputable company will be a member of at least their local Chamber Of Commerce—and often multiple Chambers. Companies that aren't members of their local BBB are almost surely trying to hide past unresolved complaints. Insist that any contractor you're considering hiring can show you current certificates of membership for all of these organizations.

Customer References

Why It's Important: All reputable contractors carry pre-printed lists of references... that includes customers from 1 to 5 years ago, as well as customers from the previous six months. This list should contain at least 100 references. In addition to the Hippo references below, go to:

Accolades and Awards

Why It's Important: If a contractor has been in business for any length of time—and doing a good job—they will most likely have been written about in a magazine or newspaper, received an award of some kind, or received special recognition from an association or trade organization. Any company that can't produce at least SOME of these kinds of accolades might not be worthy of accolades!

Hippo Roofing - Florida's Largest Metal Roofer

The June, 2014 issue of Metal Construction News ranked metal roofers by size for their 2013 performance and assessed the state of the industry According to this article, Hippo Roofing ranked as a top performer installing more squares of metal roofing than any other contractor in Florida. Hippo's performance also ranked them 8th nationwide in an industry experiencing 23% growth over 2012. This extraordianry growth in metal roofing reflects a nationwide trend of people moving away from temporary asphalt roofing to more permanent, cost effective, metal roofing systems.

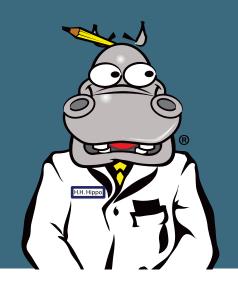

Local Contractor Wins National Award

Earlier this year, a local home improvement contractor, Hippo Roofing, LLC, was honored with the Shining Star Award by their metal roofing supplier, Classic Metal Roofing Systems, for their performance in 2013. This award is given to only a few roofing contractors across North America who exemplify superior customer service and quality resulting in high volume sales. Hippo Roofing, LLC General Manager, Bill Stillwell, accepted the award on behalf of his organization at Classic Metal Roofing Systems' annual dealer meeting in Piqua, Ohio.

Classic Metal Roofing Systems' President, Todd Miller, praised Hippo Roofing, LLC, "Every year Hippo Roofing, LLC sets an example for home improvement contractors across the country in their care for customers and quality installations. We are honored that they choose to partner with us to serve homeowners in their area."

PROFESSIONALISM

A good contractor doesn't just do good work. They also understand that when dealing with customers, it's oftentimes the little things that make a big difference. You should find a contractor that shows you respect by the way they treat you, the way they look, the way they treat your property, and how they pay attention to details. Check any contractor you're considering against these standards of professionalism found on the next few pages.

No Tricks, No Pressure Sales Agreement

Why It's Important: Many unethical contractors will resort to high-pressure sales tactics to get you to buy before you've had an opportunity to do proper due diligence on them. If you know nothing about the contractor prior to the sales call (from literature, references, online information), and they give you a low-ball price "but only if you buy right this minute," you should be wary. Any time you feel uncomfortable or unduly pressured in a sales environment, you should ask the contractor to "back off." Reputable companies will have a no-tricks, no-pressure sales pledge signed by the owner, sales manager, and each contruction consultant.

All Hippo Roofing's Construction Consultants sign a "Zero Sales Pressure Agreement" that is also signed by our sales manager to pledge that they will handle sales situations in a respectful way. Ask your Construction Consultant to see a copy of his signed agreement when he comes into your home.

CONSTRUCTION CONSULTANT "CUSTOMER RESPECT, NO TRICKS, NO PRESSURE" AGREEMENT

Jobsite Cleanup Agreement

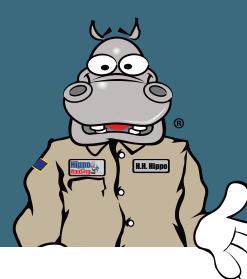

Why It's Important: Your home and yard should be cleared of large debris, and dangerous materials daily by the crew. After the job is completed, a total home clean-up should take place, including nail/screw detection (with a specialized magnet) and removal of any hazardous materials in your house or yard. Make sure your contractor has a pre-determined daily jobsite cleanup routine, and a more thorough cleanup routine upon completion of the job. All Hippo Roofing Associates follow this multi-step cleanup process at the end of EVERY SINGLE DAY. Show this roster to other contractors. See if they don't balk.

Worker Conduct Agreement

Why It's Important: This compliance agreement, signed by the workers, is a 17-point contract prohibiting the use of alcohol, drugs, foul language, misconduct, or other bad behavior on a job site. It also gives appearance standards. Keep in mind that not everything is perfect, but this agreement will greatly reduce the likelihood of problems. All Hippo Roofing Associates sign a "Worker Conduct Agreement" that is also signed by our sales manager to pledge that they will conduct themselves in a respectful and courteous manner. Ask your Associate to see a copy of his signed agreement when he comes into your home.

WORKMANSHIP

Ultimately, any contractor has to be competent to do the job right the first time. Competence comes as a result of training, experience, and good old-fashioned hard work. As you evaluate a contractor, look for signs that they can do the job right the first time.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR:

Guaranteed Results by a company that cares...

Hippo pledges that we will do everything possible to ascertain that you are a satisfied client. If something is not quite right, we'll do our utmost to correct the situation to your satisfaction. We promise you will have more than a guarantee that disappears when the job is done. We simply will not be happy until you are happy...and you have our word on it!!

Project Photos for Ideas & Inspiration

Why It's Important: A contractor who serves his customers well should be proud to present pictures of the work they've done. Ask to see a sample of jobs they've done—for inspiration for your own project and to gauge the quality of the work they've done in the past. If no photos can be produced, that should be a major warning sign.

Q: Are there any other things I should look for or watch out for that aren't listed in the pages of this guide?

A: Look for some of these telltale signs of contractors who shouldn't be trusted:

- Main phone numbers that ring to cell phones
- Main phone numbers that are never answered by receptionists
- No financing offered
- Trucks without signage on them
- No business cards or cheap business cards
- No company logo on work clothes/uniform
- Few references available
- Unresolved BBB complaints or no report at all
- Prices that are unusually low compared to other bids
- No website or very poor website
- Ability to start on your job immediately—no backlog
- Unwillingness to give any information

An Ounce Of Prevention...

It's been said that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. When the stakes are high—your home and your wallet—that saying is even more true. We hope that by reading this guide you feel more prepared to evaluate home improvement contractors and make the best decision for your family.

Q: Are you saying that you are the only company in the area that can uphold these standards?

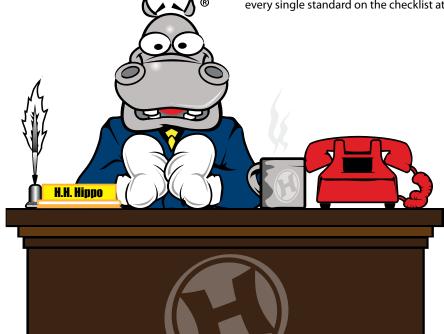

A: Most companies cannot uphold them, but there are several good, honest contractors to be found. Just be sure to take the time and use this quide to make sure before you hire anyone.

Q: Can a contractor just "fake" these standards?

A: Not likely. Most shady contractors that don't put any effort into making their businesses good, also won't put effort into faking these standards. It's a lot easier for them to just move on to their next unsuspecting victim.

Q: What if a contractor SAYS they can do all these things, but can't show the proof?

A: Don't settle for lip service. Demand to see the documentation for every single standard on the checklist at the end of this guide.

In Conclusion

When you're hiring someone to do any type of work in your home, remember it's your money and your home. Be sure you get everything in writing, ask all the questions on your mind, and clearly understand the answers you receive.

Besides what we've mentioned here, there are several other ways to gather information on a company before giving anyone a dime. Check with established consumer-to-consumer reporting groups like the Better Business Bureau where we maintain an A+ rating.

If all this makes sense, and you are curious about our approach to remodeling, please give us a call. We'll be happy to answer all of your questions for free.

As part of our commitment to our previous and potential new customers, at your request, we will set up a time to come to your home to answer your questions and concerns. At this time we can also determine if we can meet your remodeling needs. We provide this as a FREE, NO OBLIGATION service for you and your family.

Hopefully we can show you, as we have thousands of others, how to make your home absolutely gorgeous— something to be really proud of!

Remember that when Hippo Roofing visits your home, we are not going to use high-pressure sales tactics. It is simply a chance for you to meet us and see if our services can benefit you. If, after our meeting, you believe there is no benefit to be derived from working with us, we simply leave and that is that. If, however, you do find that you would like our help, we will discuss how we proceed from there.

I can't think of a better way to work. Can you?

If you think our approach is fair and honest, please consider Hippo Roo 🛭 ng for your construction needs.

Best of luck with your remodeling plans!

Sincerely,

Bill Stillwell
