To whom it may concern,

I would like to highly recommend Brian Collins, our Jammin Trivia host. Our restaurant has been hosting Jammin Trivia for nearly two years, and have had a few different DJ's host it, and none have lived up to the standard Brian has set. He has a natural charisma that makes for a pleasurable atmosphere during trivia. He is very interactive with our guests, and always makes a point to get familiar with the groups that come in regularly, as well as introducing himself to new teams. He is very attentive to the crowd; if the atmosphere isn't upbeat he can always find a way to turn it around. Brian is very good at what he does, and I think any business could highly benefit from his presence.

Sincerely
