

SUSAN L. RANCIS
Physician Assistant-Certified

Experience

2010-Present Kallgren Dermatology Clinic

Boulder, Colorado. Dr. Diane Kallgren

Responsibilities: Provide team approach to dermatological care to evaluate and treat dermatologic conditions involving skin, nails and hair. Treat all ages of patients utilizing skin exams and biopsies. Conduct skin cancer screenings, mole evaluation and acne treatments as well as sclerotherapy for leg veins and Botox treatment for hyperhidrosis and cosmetic treatment.

1997-2010 Skin Care Specialists of Colorado a.k.a. Lake Loveland Dermatology.

Loveland, CO. Dr. Patrick Lillis/Dr. Kristin Baird.

Responsibilities: Independently provide dermatological patient care by diagnosing, treating and prescribing for common skin disorders as well as perform biopsies, minor surgical procedures under physician's supervision. Develop and promote aesthetic and laser practice with experience in Erbium, CO2, Diode, Qswitch YAG, IPL and Vbeam lasers. Other treatments include sclerotherapy and filler injections using collagen, Restylane, Radiesse and Juvederm.

1992-1997 Dermatology and Dermatologic Surgery Center.

Stratford, CT.

Responsibilities: Work with dermatologists to diagnose, treat and prescribe for skin disorders as well as perform biopsies and minor surgeries. Other treatments include AHA peels, sclerotherapy, collagen injections, liposuction infiltration and laser (CO2 UltraPulse, Nd:YAG, Argon, Laserscope and Tunable Dye.) While employed 2 additional satellite offices were opened.

1990-1993 Dermatology - Private Practice.

Stamford, CT. Dr. Charles Sheard

Responsibilities: Assist physician with office procedures, treatments and surgery. Provide follow-up care and education for surgical and chronic care patients. Office management responsibilities include ordering supplies, sterilizing equipment and complying with OSHA requirements

1978-1988 University of Colorado.

Boulder, CO

Responsibilities: Independently provide medical care at a University Health Care Center serving a 22,000 young adult population. Duties include medical history, physical examinations, requisitioning x-ray and laboratory tests, prescription of medication, referral and hospital admission. Initiate and implement several clinic improvement programs including a patient self-care center to improve clinic efficiency and facilitate patient education.

1974-1976 Various health care related positions including dental care and medical office administration

Education & Certification

Masters of Science, University of Colorado, 1980

Bachelor of Science, University of Colorado 1976

National Physician Assistant Certification 1976, Recertified 1983,1991,1997,2003, 2009, 2014

Research & Training

Masters Thesis, 1980 - "A Comparative Study Using Mefenemic Acid and Ibuprofen for Reducing the Pain of Primary Dysmenorrhea"

Three-year Board Certified PA training and internship program which included didactic and clinical rotations in multi-specialty clinics including Dermatology, Allergy, Orthopedics, Emergency Room, Pediatrics and New Born Nursery at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center

Professional Experiences

Founding board member of the Society of Dermatology of Physician Assistants and Colorado Society of Dermatology Professionals

Medical team mission trips: Mexico 2010, Viet Nam 2007, Mozambique 2005