On Sunday, June 9, with 78 members of the congregation present and voting, it was unanimous that we offer a "Letter of Call" to Pr Debra Abbott to serve as our Associate Pastor of Faith Formation. Thank you to all who took part in this very important process at King of Glory. We prayerfully await Pr Deb's acceptance of our Call.

We also want to announce that KOG's former Pastor, Pr Susan Candea was elected Bishop of the Central States Synod of the ELCA. Pr Susan had been serving as Assistant to the Bishop in that Synod since her departure from KOG. Congratulations, Pastor Susan! Cards can be sent to: Central States Synod, ELCA 420 W. 14th St., Suite 101 Kansas City, MO 64105

Today is Holy Trinity. When you pray how do you address God? Do you pray to God or Jesus? Are you more comfortable with one or the other? Perhaps you pray to the Holy Spirit. Each person of the Trinity is fully God, so it doesn't truly matter. Yet it's common for most of us to be drawn to one person of the Trinity over another. When we profess the Creed today, concentrate on each of the three articles and what they are stating about the Three persons of the Trinity!

A New Member Class will be held Sun., July 21, 12:00-2:00PM. Please sign up in the concourse or speak to Pastor Ruth Ann if you are interested!

Bike to Work day is June 26. KOG will have a station at 1st & Taft from 4:00-6:00PM. If you would like to help host this, please contact the office.
