Richard S. Scott (Retired) is a Partner with Leech Tishman and a member of the Estates & Trusts Practice Group. Dick is highly regarded for his experience in estate planning and administration. In 1999, Dick merged his well-established estate planning/administration practice with Leech Tishman, bringing with him more than 35 years of estate-related legal experience.

Dick is a Martindale-Hubbell AV Peer Review Rated Attorney and is featured in the Probate and Estate Planning Section of the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. He is a member of the Pennsylvania and Allegheny County Bar Associations, and serves on their probate and trust law sections. He is also a member and past board member of the Pittsburgh Estate Planning Council.

A long-standing volunteer with non-profit organizations serving the disabled (ACHIEVA [formerly ARC – Allegheny], ARC-PA, ARC-US and the Easter Seals), Dick is well known in the community for his estate planning work for people with disabilities and their families. He recently played a lead role in creating The Family Trust, a non-profit organization that provides estate planning and fiduciary services to families of people with disabilities.
