Dear fencer,

Congratulations, you've made the right choice! We have designed these fencing camps for youth, cadet, and junior fencers who understand the importance of working hard in order to make their fencing dreams into reality. These camps are not 'recreational' by design, they're structured to improve your fencing skills utilizing fencing games, speed/agility, and plyometric training.

Who is eligible? Any fencer / any level (beginner/intermediate/advanced): we'll group fencers based on age and skill level.

What about fun? Of course, we thought of it too. Every single activity in the camp will include elements of fun fencing specific games.

HOW TO ENROLL? Complete and send us this application by the appropriate due date.

1. Camp Registration
2. Waiver of Liability and consent to treatment

Sincerely,

Serge Lilov

LFA Winter Break Camp

Use this winter's break wisely and prepare yourself for tournaments in 2019: fencing-specific agility & speed, footwork, technical and tactical drills.

The camp will be divided by skill level: beginner, intermediate, advanced Practices after the camp will be held as scheduled. During weekdays your child can stay at the club the entire day – our manager will supervise their activities between 2PM and our regular practices.

Using information on our website, please check which camp you are applying for and include your check for the appropriate amount. You can also make a payment by Visa/MC over the phone:

- 1. Sabre camp with Alexandr Buikevich for intermediate and advanced fencers
- 2. Sabre camp for beginners with Edward Chang
- 3. Epee camp for all levels with Alen Hadzic and Nick Vomero
