

S&P Dow Jones Indices to Calculate Four New Custom Indices for Peak Capital Management

NEW YORK, SEPTEMBER 13, 2016: Peak Capital Management, a Colorado-based independent wealth advisory firm, has selected S&P Dow Jones Indices (S&P DJI) to be the custom calculation agent for four indices in its family of dynamic risk hedged (DRH) indices. The indices, assembled using a tailored blend of existing S&P DJI indices, are owned by Peak Capital Management.

“S&P Dow Jones Indices enables Registered Investment Advisors (RIAs) to create sophisticated indices that allows for access to their desired strategies and benchmarks across numerous asset classes,” said Michael Mell, Director of Custom Indices at S&P DJI. “We are pleased to be the calculation agent for Peak Capital Management’s DRH indices and support RIAs’ growing demand to personalize their market exposure.”

According to Peak Capital Management, the four indices are:

- The Peak Capital U.S. Growth Total Return Index (index ticker: PCUSGTR);
- The Peak Capital Balanced Income Total Return Index (index ticker: PCBALTR);
- The Peak Capital Income Total Return Index (index ticker: PCINCTR); and
- The Peak Capital Global Growth Total Return Index (index ticker: PCGBGTR).

More information about the indices is available on the S&P DJI website.

“The Peak Capital Management DRH indices use a risk budget approach to determine allocations, an important factor in navigating today’s challenging market climate,” said Geoff Eliason, Chief Operations Officer and Head of Distribution at Peak Capital Management. “By following transparent, rule-based procedures that target weightings based on volatility and correlation, these indices offer an opportunity to respond to different market cycles with greater agility.”
