DRH Balanced Income Composite Description: The composite represents an investment designed to provide current income and long-term capital appreciation. The strategy allocates risk primarily across high-yield bonds, dividend paying stocks, REITs, and U.S. Treasuries. The strategy also has the ability to take short positions and use cash to help manage overall risk. The strategy is implemented primarily using exchange traded funds (ETFs) domiciled in the U.S.

Composite total returns are provided period to date since composite inception. Composite returns are presented net of fees. Benchmark total returns are presented according to composite inception date.

The Morningstar Multi-Asset High Income Index seeks to deliver a high level of current income while maintaining long-term capital appreciation. The index consists of a comprehensive set of exchange traded funds (ETFs) in the iShares line-up that collectively target equity, fixed income and alternative asset class. This Index does not incorporate Environmental, Social, or Governance (ESG) criteria.

The U.S. Dollar is the currency used to express performance.
