

RED ROCKS CULTURAL FESTIVAL 2020

Email:info@redrocksrwanda.com

Web:www.redrocksrwanda.com

DATE TIME

August 29th : 3PM Opening Ceremony & Sharing testimonies & Story telling

August 30th : Conservation of medicinal plants & Livelihoods

10am-1pm: Art gallery & Botanical Demonstration Garden tour in Kinigi , plus demonstration on how to create eco friendly bird feeders, help in environment Sustainability, or climate change adaptation for sustainable conservation and pollination.

2pm -4pm:Medicinal Plant & Food Security workshop , afternoon demonstration of making the eco friendly seed bag from banana barks (Igihoho)

5 pm—9pm: Join local women and kids for special campfire and Drum Nights. Be part of an amazing evening of dancers, drummers and, of course, the never-dying bonfire. Revel in the beauty of the night, enjoy out enchanting music, dancing, and fun games during the day and in the evenings.

August 31st :Art of conservation :

10am-4pm: Discussion on social inclusiveness, employment or climate change adaptation for sustainable conservation and poverty reduction, after lunch demonstration of making eco-friendly bird feeders, connecting people with nature.

4pm-5pm:Experience painting of any kind of art that connects to conservation. Kids will enjoy live paintings at their pleasure! We aim at encouraging the local community to tell and sell the Rwandan story through art and crafts, tapping into, training and nurturing artistic talent and proper mastery of craft skills and we ensure the local communities benefit from their skills in trade, art, music, education and much more gained from sustainable tourism, helping in environmental conservation and uplift the living standards.

2pm-5pm:Demonstration of Rwanda cultural dancing troops/drumming and dancing

RED ROCKS CULTURAL FESTIVAL 2020

Phone: + 250 789254315

Email: info@redrocksrwanda.com

Web: www.redrocksrwanda.com

DATE TIME

September 01st :Art Conservation Debate

10am-1pm :Resource efficiency, environment protection & climate change adaption , with a keen focus on creating sustainable Social Economic Growth.

2pm-4pm:Demonstration of making the eco-friendly bird feeders, connecting people with nature.

4pm-5pm:Mutual understanding, peace, security, and visit the women association involved in showcasing the demonstration of basket making, by banding together, our women are able to find a sense of belonging and strength in one another.

September 02nd :Social Economic Growth

10am-1pm:Mutual understanding, peace, security.

2pm-5pm:Demonstration of making eco friendly seed bags from Banana barks, and learn more about traditional pottery ,Pottery is more than an activity in Rwanda, but it is a way of expressing our cultural values and telling our story through imagination, creativity, and skill. Our visitors had to get their hands dirty.

September 03rd :Cultural Heritage

10am-1pm:Discussion on culture values, diversity & Heritage & Story telling.

2pm—5pm : Our visit to King'ware local market and get fully immersed into the culture of the Rwandese people through language and food, and also you will find the most unique souvenirs to take back home. After all, there's no better way to experience the culture and community of Rwanda than at a busy local market! A place to shop, merge, taste, bargain, and indulge with locals and be ready for full-local adventure.

September 04th :Gorilla Naming Ceremony

1pm-Dawn:Closing Ceremony, Success Story Celebration and dancing and feasting