COVID-19 TTC BAKERY UPDATE

As of March 26th (Thursday) we will become (for the time being) an appointment only bakery. We will work from home most of the week, and limited hours for cake pickups or deliveries.

Why? Our biggest concern is the pace of the virus spreading and we do not want our staff to come into contact with it. Also, our sales have plummeted to lows we haven't seen since we open over 10 years ago. Cost of services, like electricity, products, goods, etc are very costly in a business scenario like ours and ways we can reduce usage is what we're striving for to stay alive.

We didn't want it to come to this, but after weighing out everything, in order to get by, this is what we've come to as a decision. We're glad to know everyone understands.

We will be baking on Tuesdays at our Arlington location, for pickups or deliveries available for Friday's or Saturdays with limited hours of 11am to 1pm from our Arlington store 76006.

- Everything will become special order only; cakes, cookies, cakeballs, etc.
- UberEats will be suspended for the time being, too.
