

In-Home Consultation & Measuring

If you are unable, unsure, or have no time to take rough measurements before your initial design consult in our showroom, we have a solution for you. We offer an in-home consultation and measurement service. We visit homes within the outlined service area below before your appointment in our showroom to take detailed measurements and offer advice on options for layout of your space.

FAQs

- Meet for up to 2 hours at your project address on a prescheduled day and time.
- We'll offer ideas and options for room reconfiguration and layout changes.
- We'll take detailed measurements of the space.
- The measurements and ideas generated at this appointment will help elevate the creativity and accuracy of your initial design.

Fee: $300. Contact us for pricing and availability for projects outside of this area.
