The New Year has begun and that means new beginnings for cold days and nights ahead! Let's get the children bundled up and ready for Winter! I hope everyone enjoyed the holidays! This month our themes will be, but are not limited to: Martin Luther King, teddy bears, Winter, ice, and building snowmen which will help with sensory and visual discussions. The letters we will talk about for the month of January are W, M, I and B. Our activities and art work are, but not limited to: making snowmen, building teddy bears, teddy bear hunt, making paper gloves, making cloud dreams and paper doll chains.

Parents please remember to bring appropriate Winter attire.

Our motto remains in the Bumblebee room: Ready, Willing, and Able to Explore!

2012 is gone and with a new year we discover new themes. This month, the students will learn all about transportation, the months of the year, and sizes (big, medium, and little). We will also focus on the letters J, A, and S. As always, we will continue our work on counting from 1-20. We look forward to spending another year together with all of our Toddler Town families!

- Ms. Sandra and Ms. Daulet

Tuition payments are due on time.

Any payments made after your due date will result in a late fee added to your current amount.

All teachers have envelopes for payments so feel free to ask for one.

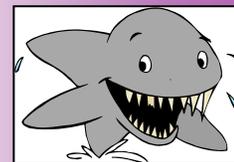

Envelopes have to be handed to a teacher.

Thank you!

Happy NEW YEAR everyone!! December was so much fun! We had a great time talking about Big and Little, Ocean animals, Holidays and the New Year. In January we will talk about “me, myself and I,” Winter, Winter animals – penguins and polar bears, and hibernation. We loved celebrating all the Winter holidays with each other. As the New Year starts we have a lot of exciting themes to explore. The first week of January we will explore about ourselves. The second week we will learn about the Winter season. The third week we will discuss Winter animals and the final week we will talk about hibernation of Winter animals. How we wish we could hibernate! ☺

We will also continue focusing on lower case letters and our names. Happy January! ☺

Another year has come and gone at Toddler Town and that means we have watched our students grow and grow! This month will be full of fun activities and themes. We start the month with a lesson on safety—we will learn when to call 911 and Stranger Danger. The following week we will learn about colors. Opposites will be discussed during the 3rd week in January and friendship will come the week after, Finally, we will wrap up the month by talking about and making maps.

Next month will be our big talent show, so the students will start preparing in January.

As always, we continue homework every Tuesday and Thursday. We also work on our writing notebooks in the morning. The students are so good now at spelling their names and recognizing the names of their friends!

Enjoy the upcoming month!
